

Aug 16, 1812

1912 Dates J-BK

Battle of Detroit

Brit Brock w/1,300 defeated Hull with 2,500

Brit loss ?

Amer loss 2,500

Aug 19, 1812

1912 Dates J-BK

Off Massachusetts Bay

Amer. Vessel "Constitution"

Brit. Vessel GUERRIÈRE

Commander HULL (won) over

Dacres

lost 7

lost 78

Oct 13, 1812

1912 Dates J-BK

Battle of Queenston Heights
Brit Brock defeated Van Rensselaer

1812

1912 Dates J-BK

(1771-1820) SCHWARZ'ENBERG, Karl Philipp,

Prince von

Austrian field Marshal. Born at Vienna.
Served Against Turks and the French Republic.
Ambassador to St Petersburg (1808). Fought at WAGRAM (1809). Conducted the negotiations for the marriage of Napoleon to the Archduchess Maria Louisa. Commanded the Austrian forces sent to aid France against Russia (1812). Generalissimo of the Armies of the coalition which was defeated by Napoleon at Dresden, but were the visiting at Leipzig.

On the return of Napoleon from Elba, Schwarzenberg again entered France in command of the Allied Army. Mode provided of the empire council for war

Oct 18, 1812

1912 Dates J-BK

off North Carolina

Ames Vessel WASP

JONES defeated

lost 5

Brit vessel Folic

WHINGATES

lost 62

Oct 25, 1812

1912 Dates J-BK

off Canary Islands

Amer Vessel "United States"

Brit Vessel Macedonian

DECATUR defeated

CARDEN

loss 5

loss 94

Dec 29, 1812

1912 Dates J-BK

Off San Salvador

Amer Vessel "Constitution" Brit vessel JAVA

BAINBRIDGE defeated 1 combat

lost 35

lost 161

Aug 20, 1812

GANANOQUI VILLAGE

95 Americans led by Captain Forsyth landed near Gananoqui, a village near the Thousand Islands in Canada where the British had collected ammunition and stores. After making a brief resistance the British retreated. A large quantity of supplies were seized by the Americans and the storehouse burned.

Nov. 21, 1812

Fort Niagara

The British batteries opposite Fort Niagara conducted an active bombardment on that fort.

The firing continued till evening and although the Americans were short of ammunition, they succeeded in holding the fort.

Aug 19, 1812

1912Dates J-BK

CONSTITUTION - GUERRIERE

On Aug 19, 1812, a naval battle was fought off the coast of Massachusetts between the U.S. Constitution and the British GUERRIERE. The Guerriere was completely wrecked and on the next day was set afire and blown up.

1812

CONSTELLATION

Veteran of War of 1812

The last all sail warship built by the Navy.

Incorporated (?) a piece of an old sloop of war launched 1854 & had same name.

Saw service off West Coast Africa intercepting slaves. Training ship

1993- now under $ 1854
Lm new - 2 - days

War of 1812

"Declaration" was moved from Lexington, Va back to Washington after the British fleet had sailed out of Chesapeake Bay. The roll of parchment moved wherever the State Dept. moved until 1844

Aug 1812

Fort Dearborn

on site of present - day Chicago; Americans abandoned fort during War of 1812 but were massacred
by POTAWATOMI INDIANS (allied with the British) on south shore of Lake Michigan.

Fort Dearborn was burned to the ground.

War of 1812

Toward end of War of 1812, British were again threatening the security of the "Declaration".

Sec. of State James Monroe ordered his department's records loaded onto carts and rushed across the Potomac. While the torch was being put to Washington's public buildings, the "Declaration" was not by itself in a private home in Germany, Virginia

Nov 2, 1812

Nov 7, 1812

The Sutoras - Mage expedition arrived at Goliah & found it undefended.

Nov 7, 1812 the Spaniards arrived and attacked. Unable to storm the town the Spaniards laid siege.
Mage refused to leave his tent & Major Kemper asked Sutoras to take command

The Americans repulsed the Spaniards, who killed the major and returned to San Antonio.

1812, July

In Natchitoches, General Gutierrez met Lieutenant Austin W. Magee of the U.S. Army. They offered 40⁰⁰/mo & 1 league of land to any that would sign up

In July 1812, 800 men were camped at Spanish Bluff on the Trinity River of Central Texas.

Oct 1812

The Sutter - Magee expedition crossed the Colorado R. at what is now Columbus

Dec. 14, 1812

1912 Dates J-BK

LAKE BORGNE

After the movements of British in Chesapeake Bay, they started for New Orleans. On Dec. 14, 1812 the combined military and naval forces of England were met at Lake Borgne, east of New Orleans by a fleet sent from New Orleans to intercept them. At the end of about an hour's fighting, the Americans were repulsed and forced to surrender, leaving the Bank's account of the Bourne.

1812

The total U.S. debt had been reduced to 45,200,000

Dec. 29, 1812

1912 Dates J-BK

CONSTITUTION - JAVA

The American frigate Constitution commanded by BAINBRIDGE encountered the JAVA off the coast of Brazil. After a battle of about 1 hour, the JAVA was totally defeated and forced to surrender.

June 1812

Napoleon's Grand Army invaded Russia.

In winter he was forced to retreat (no supplies).

Most of his 600,000 men were lost.

Sept. 6, 1812

6am Battle of BORODINO started napoleon vs Russians just before Moscow

1812-1815

WAR of 1812

The United States entirely independent of Britain

Battles: Lake Erie; New Orleans

Leaders: Perry; COCKBURN; ROSS; JACKSON;
McDONOUGH

1812-1815

War of 1812

United States vs England

1813 Battle of Lake Erie

1815 Battle of New Orleans

Treaty of Ghent 1814

Sept. 7, 1812

Battle of BORODINO, fought near Moscow, spelling doom for Napoleon's plans to conquer Russia. After devastating artillery fire from both sides came the savagery of close combat. At the end of the day Napoleon had lost 30,000 troops, and of his 90,000 of his Grande Armée.

1812

Pittsburgh to Philadelphia - 144 hours by stage

Apr 30, 1812

(18)

Louisiana admitted
48, 523 sq mi
Baton Rouge

1812

1912 Dates J-BK

Spain & Portugal

BATTLE of SALAMANCA

1812

1912 Dates J-BK

MICHAEL BARCLAY DE TOLLY (1761-1818)

A Russian general, descendant of the old Scottish family to which Robert Barclay, the Quaker, belonged. He participated in successive Russian wars. In 1812 he was appointed commander-in-chief. His reputation as general was based upon the auspicious part he took in opposing NAPOLEON I's advance into Russia in 1812. He commanded

The Russian Division of the Allied Armies at DESDORF & LEIPZIG, Attorneys the German press and field marshal.

1912 Dates J-BK

Aug. 5, 1812

BROWNSTOWN, Michigan

A detachment of 200 men under VAN HORNE, (acting as advance guard to Captain Brush, who was on his way to relieve General Hull in Canada) was suddenly surrounded by a band of Indians under TECUMSEH, near Brownstown at the mouth of the Huron R.

in Michigan. The Amosians immediately started, leaving 17 men killed and several wounded.

Aug. 16, 1812

1912 Dates J-BK

(1769-1812) SIR ISAAC BROCK

The "Hero of Upper Canada".

Commander of all English troops in upper Canada (1810).

Lieutenant Governor of the Province
Aug. 16, 1812 - Captured Detroit and received General Hull's surrender

Oct. 13, 1812 - Was mortally wounded in American attack on QUEENSTON.

Sept 7, 1812

1912 Dates J-BK

BORODINO

(Russia)

Borodino, a Russian village on the MOSKWA R. was the scene of one of the most bloody battles of history.
The French were commanded by Napoleon, the Russians by KUTUSOFF and both armies numbered about 120,000. After an obstinate struggle the Russians retreated leaving Napoleon an open road to Moscow

This battle is also known as Battle of MOSKWA